Recreational Vehicles in Rockaway Beach Rules and Regulations

1. If RV's are parked on the street they are treated as a vehicle, and cannot be parked in one location for more than 30 days. While parked on the street they may not be used as a dwelling.
2. RV's must be legally parked on private property when they are stored for a longer period of time
3. Any use of an RV as a dwelling is prohibited, except for:
 - In a permitted RV park,
 - In the RMD zone, on private property, and with a zoning permit, and connected to water and sewer systems
 - On private property in other zones, by visitors of the owner of that property, and with a permit for 4 days only, renewable once for 4 days.

RVs that are being used as a dwelling unit are illegal unless it meets one of the three conditions above. Citations will be issued if the violation continues, so make sure you stay on the right side of the law and comply with the ordinances of our City.
